Cristina Rodrigo, Specialist, Head of Sale, said, "We are thrilled to close the season on a high note, achieving $2.83 million in total sales today. With collector participation from over 30 countries, 91 lots sold, more than half of which exceeded their pre-sale estimates, while nearly a quarter surpassed their high estimates. Colored gemstones were a particular highlight, achieving a 90% sell-through rate and totaling $1.7 million. Emeralds led the category, closely followed by sapphires. Signed jewels also performed exceptionally well, with 93% sold and total sales reaching $1.38 million. Notably, nearly 70% of signed pieces exceeded their low estimates, and 33% surpassed their high. We are proud to have brought such a remarkable selection to auction and look forward to continuing to present the finest jewels to our collectors worldwide next season."
