PARIS – 24 MARCH 2025 – This Spring, from 7 to 18 April 2025, Phillips is proud to present David Hockney, a dedicated exhibition in Paris featuring highlights from the upcoming fourth annual David Hockney auction in September 2025, alongside private sale offerings and loans from prestigious private collections. Timed to coincide with a milestone moment in Hockney's career—David Hockney 25 at the Fondation Louis Vuitton, the most comprehensive retrospective of the artist's work to date—this exhibition offers collectors and enthusiasts an unparalleled opportunity to engage with, acquire, and celebrate Hockney's iconic works at a time of exceptional market momentum and global recognition.

Robert Kennan, Phillips' Head of Editions, Europe, said "We are thrilled to present David Hockney in Paris, an exhibition that highlights the artist's enduring influence and coincides with a defining moment in his career. As the only auction house to offer an annual sale dedicated to Hockney's work, Phillips remains at the forefront of the market, providing collectors with exceptional opportunities to acquire pieces spanning etchings, prints, paintings, iPad drawings and more. With David Hockney 25 at the Fondation Louis Vuitton drawing international attention, this exhibition in Paris is the perfect occasion to engage with the artist's legacy and vibrant market."
