GENEVA – 2 APRIL 2025 – Phillips is delighted to unveil highlights of the Geneva Jewels Auction: IV, set to take place at Hotel President Wilson on 12 May 2025. Leading the sale is a 53.14-carat Fancy Vivid Yellow diamond and diamond pendant, alongside a pair of diamond earrings, weighing 10.92 and 10.58 carats, D Colour, Flawless. The auction will also feature an exceptional selection of coloured gemstones, alongside creations from renowned jewellery maisons such as Van Cleef & Arpels, Cartier, Bulgari, Graff, and Buccellati as well as pieces of historical significance. In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the 1925 Paris Exposition des Arts Décoratifs, the sale will include a curated selection of Art Deco jewels, paying tribute to this timeless era of design. The highlights tour will travel to Hong Kong, New York, Singapore, and London before concluding in Geneva, where these pieces will be on view at Hotel President Wilson from 7 May until the auction on 12 May, coinciding with GemGenève.

Benoît Repellin, Phillips' Worldwide Head of Jewellery, said "We are delighted to present the highlights of our Geneva sale this spring, where our top lots include a magnificent Fancy Vivid Yellow diamond pendant and exquisite pair of diamond earrings. Following the outstanding results achieved for coloured gemstones in 2024, we are particularly excited to present a superb selection this season, alongside Art Deco masterpieces, and historically significant treasures. This auction celebrates extraordinary craftsmanship and provenance and we look forward to welcoming collectors and enthusiasts to our international highlight tour ahead of the auction in Geneva this May."
