Avery Semjen, Phillips' Head of New Now, New York, said, "It's always exciting to start the New York fall sale season with a robust selection of blue chip and fresh to market works, from Anish Kapoor and Ed Clark to Laura Owens and Rosemarie Trockel. It was a delight to see collectors from a global audience participation from bidders online, in the room, and over the phone, with continued support for emerging artists on the secondary market. Many works saw results high above their estimates, such as Gilbert & George's Man-God, which sold for $234,950. It was wonderful to see records set for Nikki Maloof, Jessie Homer French, and others."
